Term

The Co-Design Team will operate during the life of the Design Phase of this project, which is expected to run from 24 March to 30 June 2017.

Responsibilities

The Co-Design Team is the project's brains trust. Broadly, it is expected that members share the wisdom from their experience, learnings from their practice and data from their organisations to assist in the design of services funded under Priority 2 of the Third Action Plan of the National Plan to Reduce Violence against Women and their Children.

Specifically, the Co-Design Team is responsible for:

- providing insights, input and advice into the design of the model for the services listed above and their evaluation frameworks,
- providing feedback on the draft models and evaluation frameworks that is developed as part of this process,
- suggesting stakeholders from within your organisation to be interviewed as part of design activities, and
- providing access to service activity data.

Meetings

The Co-Design Team will meet on two occasions by way of Design Shops held at the National Centre of Indigenous Excellence in Redfern (Sydney). The dates for these Design Shops are as follows:

- 9 & 10 May 2017
- 13 & 14 June 2017.

These Design Shops will be facilitated by external consultant Inside Policy.
